

PRGX President and CEO Ron Stewart to Receive Legacy Award from Big Brothers Big Sisters of Metro Atlanta

September 6, 2019

ATLANTA, Sept. 06, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- PRGX Global, Inc. (Nasdaq: PRGX), a global leader in Recovery Audit and Spend Analytics services, today announced that President and CEO Ron Stewart will be recognized by Big Brothers Big Sisters of Metro Atlanta (BBBSMA) with a Legacy Award for his commitment for more than 25 years to serving children facing adversity and igniting their full potential.

"I've enjoyed working with so many others who have dedicated their time and support to Big Brothers Big Sisters of Metro Atlanta because of the important work they do to lift children up and prepare them for success throughout their lifetime," said Stewart. "Of course I am honored to receive this recognition, but we must not forget the nearly half a million children in metro Atlanta in need of a mentor and positive guiding force."

BBBSMA will hold its 25th Legacy Awards Gala on September 7 and will honor Stewart with a Legacy Award for his leadership, vision and support which have helped the agency have a meaningful impact on the lives of thousands of metro Atlanta children. Stewart became a Big Brother 35 years ago and has continued his close relationship with his "Little" since that time. He currently serves as an emeritus board member with over 30 years of board service. Each year BBBSMA connects approximately 1,500 children from 12 metro Atlanta counties with one-to-one mentorships to change their lives for the better.

"The support and leadership of individuals like Ron has helped our organization expand our impact and make a meaningful difference in thousands of children's lives," said Kwame Johnson, President and CEO of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Metro Atlanta. "Ron has given countless hours of his time to mentoring children and supporting our organization over the years, and he is more than deserving of the Legacy Award."
